Molly Gibb

Class Teacher

Studies/career / interests overview:

MA Social Anthropology, University of Aberdeen. Department Head and Reading Teacher at Sherwood Forest Camp, Missouri. Professional Diploma in Steiner Waldorf Education (3-year programme) from Edinburgh Steiner School Teacher Education Course (ESTEC). Knitting for All Coach (Edinburgh).

What do you feel makes Edinburgh Steiner School so relevant in the 21st Century?

Increasingly the modern world requires people to look outwith themselves in order to succeed. Steiner Waldorf Education equips pupils with the capacities to thrive, whilst having a secure base within, which they draw from so that they may live authentically.

What special skills and experience do you feel you bring to the community and classroom?

A sense of wonder in the world and empathetic respect for others. I am passionate about crafts and about people, places and culture.

From your own schooling, what is the most useful or hardest lesson learnt?

I learnt from an early age that though things don't always go your own way, your very best is always good enough and that if at first you don't succeed, to try, try again.
